Classification:	Social and Community Services Employee; Level 4
Hours of Work:	As per the Contract of Employment

Position Context:

Warrina Domestic & Family Violence Specialist Services Co-operative Ltd (Warrina) is a not-for-profit organisation providing a range of support services for women and children who are experiencing domestic and family violence.

Warrina also manages the Coffs Harbour, Bellingen and Nambucca Homelessness Support Service for Women - a Specialist Homelessness Service incorporating the Women and Children's Refuge and outreach services; the Coffs-Clarence Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Service; Engage 2 Change - Men's Behaviour Change group and Community Education; and the Staying Home Leaving Violence program in Coffs Harbour.

The Coffs-Clarence Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Service (Coffs-Clarence WDVCS) is funded by Legal Aid NSW and auspiced by Warrina. The WDVCS provides information, referral, advocacy and support to women and children who are experiencing domestic violence. The WDVCS covers Coffs Harbour, Grafton and Maclean Local Courts, and includes the Local Co-ordination Point for the Coffs-Clarence Local Area Command; The WDVCS is also funded by the Commonwealth Government for the Family Advocacy Support Service (FASS) to provide support to women in relation to the Family Law matters.

The Coffs-Clarence WDVCS employs a team of 13 workers in full-time and part-time positions. Staff operate from the head office in Coffs Harbour or from an outreach office in Grafton.

Purpose and Function:

The Coffs-Clarence WDVCS provide women experiencing domestic and family violence with threat assessment and safety planning, case coordination, information and court advocacy. The Coffs-Clarence WDVCS also coordinate and provide secretariat support for Safety Action Meetings (SAMs) in Coffs Harbour and Grafton.

The Domestic and Family Violence (D&FV) Specialist Worker is responsible for:

- Accepting electronic referrals from the DFV Connect platform and non-electronic referrals direct from the government agencies and non-government services;
- Contacting clients referred to the WDVCS in a timely manner, conducting a threat assessment to ascertain their current risk status and undertaking safety planning to address a client's immediate safety needs;
- Liaising with the SAMS Coordinator to ensure all clients assessed at "Serious Threat" are placed on the agenda for the next SAMS when necessary;
- Providing relevant information and making warm referrals to a range of service providers to assist clients with their on-going needs, such as counselling, legal advice and representation, accommodation and court advocacy;
- Facilitating clients access to relevant services, including, but not limited to; legal, health, housing, financial, children's services and Victims Services;
- Liaising with clients in relation to Safety Action Plans developed at SAMS and /or support provided, or arranged, by the WDVCS;
- Engaging in community development activities;
- Attending court on ADVO list days and other days as required to provide information, assistance and court advocacy for WDVCS clients;
- Working collaboratively and cooperatively with key WDVCS partners including the NSW Police, Local Courts, legal representatives and referral agencies in order to facilitate client access to those agencies and services;
- Providing clients with information about the court process and their options in relation to ADVOs and associated charge matters as requested;
- Providing clients with access to information and referral, and advocate for effective and appropriate legal protection, including assisting clients with applications for Legal Aid, or assisting a woman to make an application for an ADVO with the police or the Registrar;
- Working with the DVLO, Police or Police Prosecutors to ensure ADVO conditions are appropriate to the client's needs;
- Managing client files and ongoing court dates to ensure, where possible, that clients are aware and prepared for future court appearances and hearings;
- Complying with the SAMS manual and the Domestic Violence Information Sharing Protocol;
- Supporting the Manager in the development and administration of policies, systems and processes for the effective operation of the WDVCS and SAMS.
