Warrina DFVSS provides support services aimed at reducing the incidence and impact of domestic & family violence on women & children.

We are seeking a dedicated SHS DFV Specialist Housing Worker to join our passionate team supporting and empowering women and dependent children who are affected by DFV and/or are homelessness.

This position is responsible for providing trauma-informed, client-centred support to women and children experiencing domestic and family violence who are at risk of homelessness and/or residing in short- or medium-term accommodation. The role combines case management, housing and tenancy support, advocacy, and collaborative service delivery to support clients to achieve safety, stability and long-term housing outcomes

Our organisation prioritises supportive working conditions and a collaborative atmosphere, as well as Salary Sacrifice options available.

Being a woman is a genuine occupational qualification for this position under Section 31 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977. Applicants must have experience in working with women who have experienced domestic violence.

To apply, please provide:

- A cover letter, addressing the “Essential Criteria” as detailed in the position description, and how your skills, training and experience will align with the position description.
- An up-to-date resume;
- Contact details for two recent employment referees, one from a current or previous supervisor.
- NSW Working with Children Check number and date of birth (for verification purposes);
- A recent Criminal Record Check if available.

Please refer to our website for applicant information, position description and essential criteria <https://warrina.org.au/get-involved/>. Please follow the guidelines for your application.

Applications should be emailed to employment@warrina.org.au by 5pm Wednesday 23rd of September 2026. Successful applicants will need to be available for interview on Tuesday 29th of September 2026.
